

Case Analysis Grading Rubric

CATEGORY	25 Points	20 Points	15 Points	10 Points or less
Identification of Key Issues	Student defines all of the key issues in the case.	Student defines all but one of the key issues in the case.	Student overlooks two of the key issues in the case.	Student overlooks more than two key issues in the case.
Analysis of Key Issue(s)	Student uses textbook information, credible research, or personal experience to analyze and support all the key issues in the case and offers excellent insights.	Student uses textbook information, credible research, or personal experience to analyze and support almost all of the key issues in the case.	Student used textbook information, credible research, or personal experience to analyze and support a few of the key issues in the case.	Student used the textbook information, credible research, or personal experience to analyze and support one to two key issues in the case.
Writing Mechanics (grammar, spelling, punctuation) and APA Citation (5th Edition), as applicable	The student's work contains no errors in grammatical, spelling, punctuation, or word usage.	Student's work contains one error in grammatical, spelling, punctuation, or word usage.	Student's work contains two errors in grammatical, spelling, punctuation, or word usage.	The student's work contains more than two errors in grammatical, spelling, punctuation or word usage.